Attorney General Terry Goddard, Yavapai County Sheriff Steve Waugh and Yavapai County Attorney Sheila Polk to discuss Meth Legislation

(Prescott, Ariz. – February 15, 2005) Arizona Attorney General Terry Goddard will hold a press conference with Yavapai County Sheriff Steve Waugh and Yavapai County Attorney Sheila Polk to discuss legislation aimed at combating the production and use of methamphetamines. Goddard also will be joined by representatives from the area Boys and Girls Clubs.

The goal of the legislation sponsored by Rep. Tom O'Halleran of Sedona is to reduce meth cooking in Arizona, begin a coordinated education effort on the dangers of meth, and update existing laws governing environmental remediation and child abuse. Goddard is working with legislators and a broad coalition of law enforcement, children advocates, firefighters and neighborhood activists to adopt a new law to make methamphetamine production more difficult by moving chemicals used by criminals to make meth behind the pharmacy counter.

Date: Wednesday - February 16, 2005

Time: 2:00 p.m.

What: Press Conference

Where: Yavapai County Attorney's Office
